

Recognition that works harder — inside Beekeeper

Add points, global rewards, and program insights, fully integrated and built for frontline engagement.

Frontline workers deserve more than a pat on the back. They deserve recognition that truly motivates, rewards that truly matter, and tools that make it all effortless. That's why Bucketlist, the leading recognition and rewards platform for frontline teams, is now available inside Beekeeper.

Together, we take Beekeeper's recognition stream to the next level — transforming shout-outs into lasting impact with a global rewards marketplace, measurable results, and a seamless experience built for the realities of frontline work.

Scale recognition. Give meaningful rewards. All inside Beekeeper.

Add Meaningful Rewards

Give employees recognition that goes beyond words. With points and 1M+ global rewards—gift cards, swag, experiences, and donations—everyone can choose something that feels truly valuable to them.

Visible and Inclusive

Recognition moments are public and accessible to everyone, creating a culture of appreciation that reaches across frontline and desk-based teams alike.

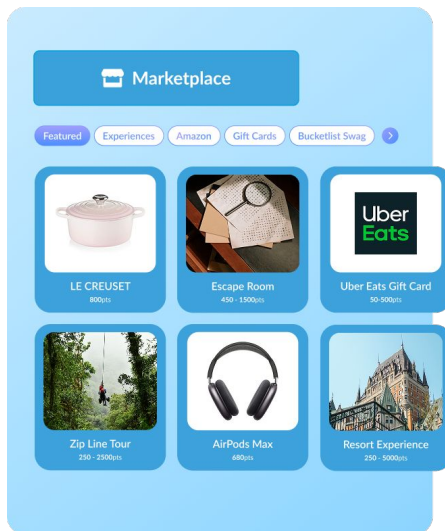

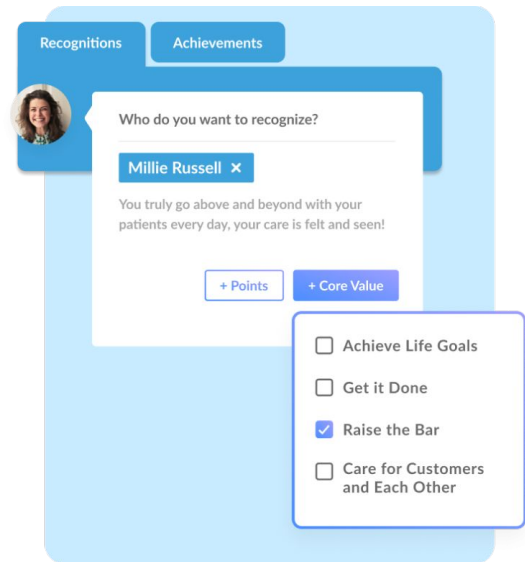

Effortless for Admins

With centralized reporting and simple setup, admins get clear visibility and adoption without adding another system to manage.

How Concord Hospitality Transformed Recognition with Bucketlist + Beekeeper

Concord replaced a manual and fragmented rewards program with a seamless, points-based recognition engine directly inside Beekeeper. Now, milestone celebrations, peer and manager acknowledgments, and global rewards are automated - complete with real-time analytics and aligned to company values.

HR and operations teams regained hours of admin time, retention improved, and recognition is finally meaningful and measurable across 140 locations.
